Press Release

CCSI a CISCO New York State OGS Umbrella Authorized Reseller

Bohemia, NY, January 29, 2019 – Contemporary Computer Services Inc. (CCSI), a leading provider of technology services and solutions, is excited to announce it is an approved CISCO NYS OGS (New York Office of General Services) Umbrella Reseller, PM20800. After a thorough evaluation process by CISCO, CCSI was approved to sell CISCO products and services under the NYS OGS contract.

The OGS contract allows our New York State authorized clients to expedite the procurement process of verified services. In addition to our other services that can be sold under OGS: Managed Services (PM68125), Cloud Solutions (PM68125), and Physical Security solutions (PT65383), we can also resell CISCO products under CISCO OGS Umbrella. View a full list of CCSI services available for purchase under these OGS contracts at www.ccsinet.com/state-contracts.

Authorized users of the contract, as defined by OGS, include New York State agencies, political subdivisions, local governments, public authorities, special districts, public and nonprofit libraries, and certain other nonpublic/nonprofit organizations.

CCSI's mission is to help solve modern business challenges with technology solutions that optimize cost, reduce risk, simplify operations, and increase performance. CCSI has pursued this by offering a full circle service of solutions that are tailored for each of our client's unique needs. Now with the NYS OGS contract and CISCO NYS OGS Umbrella contract, our New York State agency clients will be able to take full advantage of our managed services, cloud solutions, physical security, and CISCO products and services.
